FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local Businesses Donate Prizes to Relay for Life Event

April 15, 2004 – Frackville – Lori DiRenzo-Tarson, sponsor of the Frackville Relay for Life Benefit featuring the band Tar Beach on April 22, 2004, announced today that several area business have graciously contributed to benefit dance with numerous prizes.

“It is amazing to see local area businesses contributing to a wonderful cause. The help that these businesses have given to the event is enormous and we greatly appreciate everything they’ve done to help ensure the success of this benefit for the Relay for Life.” Expressed Ms. Direnzo-Tarson.

Hawranick Fuel Services of Frackville donated a prize of $50 in fuel oil, Jack Rich, Inc. has donated $25 in gasoline to be used at it B.R. Grumpy stores, a basket containing a bottle of wine donated by Benigna’s Creek Vineyards and other basket items donated by Ron Kissinger of McDonald’s, both located in the Frackville Mall, will all be given away the night of the benefit. Attendees will have the opportunity to make a donation to the benefit for the possibility to win one of the many prizes anticipated on being available that night.

The benefit dance for Relay for Life will be held on April 22, 2005 from 9 p.m. to Midnight at the Annunciation Hall in Frackville. Entrance to the event is $15.00 and includes Beer, Soda and Snacks. The benefit will feature the regional band, Tar Beach, who has played locally at Mountain Valley Golf Course within the last year.

For more information about the benefit dance or to make a donation, please call 570-874-3797.
