

Contact: p: 570-645-5640
Lou Labosky f: 570-645-9505
4 Seventh Avenue
Nesquehoning, PA 18240
www.roadhouseproductions.net
roadhouseproductions@hotmail.com

Press Released Prepared By:

www.crossroadsmultimedia.com

Contact: p: 570-590-5763
Liana Evans, President fax: 570-628-3887
1 S. 2nd St.
Pottsville, PA 17901
liana@crossroadsmultimedia.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Poison's Front Man, Bret Michaels, To Perform in Berwick

November 16, 2004 – Pepper's Grill & Arena, Berwick, PA – It's not often that big name acts visit the smaller towns of Northeastern Pennsylvania, so Pepper's Grill & Arena in Berwick is pulling out all the stops for Poison's front man, Bret Michaels. Michaels will be performing at Pepper's this Saturday, November 20, 2004 as a stop in his Freedom of Sound tour.

Michaels, a native of Pittsburgh, is best known as the lead singer of the 80's band Poison. Now out promoting his new album, Freedom of Sound, he performs not only the songs that made Poison famous, but a new style of songs that are all his own. Most recently Bret paired up with country music star Jessica Andrews to record the duet "All I Ever Needed."

Bret Michaels has written ten top 40 singles including the hit, "Every Rose Has It's Thorn," which held the number one spot for three weeks in Billboard's Top Pop Singles chart. His newer music now has more of a country feel to it, but is still being received well by his fans. The Freedom of Sound tour has been a great success so far, and will continue into December.

"Being able to bring Bret Michaels to northeastern PA was a very exciting event to pull together for Pepper's Grill," explained Lou Labosky of Roadhouse Productions, the production company responsible for putting the event together. "Bret's new music is really exciting and new. Fans who like Poison, will definitely like Brett's new music."

Special guest performer for the Bret Michaels' show is local favorite, Well of Souls, which is included with the ticket price. Tickets can be bought through Roadhouse Productions (570-645-5640), online at www.ticketweb.com or by calling Peppers' Grill & Arena (570-752-9104) for charge by phone.

###
